Accident at Love Lake on Tuesday.

Ben Wright, a single man between twenty-five and thirty years of age. whose father lives a mile west of Atlanta was badly hurt at Love Lake, on Tuesday about noon. He was walking on the track and stepped aside to let the engine which was going to the tank pass him. He stepped back on the track not noticing that the cars from which the engine was detached were coming in the same direction. When the car struck him he was thrown into a cattle guard and the wheels passed over his left leg severing the foot at the ankle and otherwise badly mangling the limb. He sustained other injuries about the very best of materials are employed. head. He was taken up apparently in Anna Klein, who had been visiting a dying condition and brought to La-Plata. It was thought he was proba- ny. Full and complete instruction in weeks, left for Macon on Thursday bly under the influence of liquor at the time the accident occurred.
